DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 22-25, 30, 36-38 and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by DE 197 50 977.

DE 197 50 977 discloses all the limitations of the instant claims including; comprising a simulator 80 which can be acted upon by a brake pedal 10, with an output signal of an actuation sensor 30 being sent to an electronic control unit which controls a pressure source in response to the signal of the actuation sensor, and with an output of the pressure source that is connected to a distributor device for the brake force and actuates individual wheel brakes of the vehicle, also comprising means for enabling actuation of the brakes by muscular power within a fallback mode, wherein a lost travel is provided between a first actuation component such as the brake pedal in particular or a component articulated at the brake pedal and a second actuation component that is connected downstream in the flux of force, in particular an input member 21, in order to uncouple the first actuation component mechanically from the reactions of force of the motor vehicle brake system in a by-wire mode.

Regarding claim 23, note spring, actuator 20 and element 83 reduce clearance when pressure is lost in booster 20.

Regarding claim 25, see clutch 83-84, 22a and 12a.

Regarding claims 38 and 42, the clutch shaft 12a is engagable with the input member in an axial direction.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 33 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DE 197 50 977.

DE 197 50 977 discloses all the limitations of the instant claims with exception to the explicit disclosure of enabling the fallback mode in response to detected deviations. The Examiner takes official notice that it is well known in the art to activate a fallback mode when brake system response is not as expected.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to activate a fallback mode in the device of DE 197 50 977 in response in deviating brake system response as known in the art, to ensure proper emergency operation.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 39-41 and 43 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 12/18/2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Regarding DE 197 50 977, it is noted that elements 12a and 12b are not always in contact. During braking, element 22 draws 12b away from 12a to decouple the pedal from the master cylinder and provides lost motion as required by the claims. See column 4, lines 50-64.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
